

Choose the new Cemline 40S and its full automatic housings
insertion process to gain benefits from this innovative concept.

Keep your costs under control

- Get the advantages of the automatic insertion process while keeping your current Crimp to Crimp machines running

Keep your production under control, be flexible and reactive

- Just in time production, from small to large batches
- No learning between 2 productions
- No limits: unlimited number of leads and housings per harness
- Tracking & tracing of produced harness

Maximize your workplace

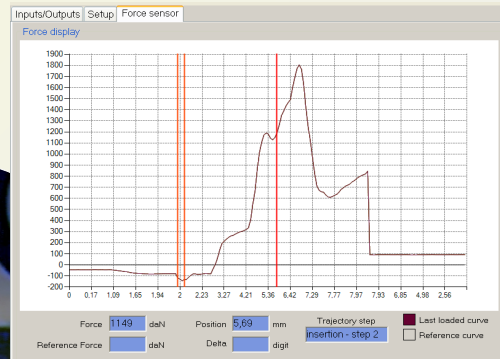

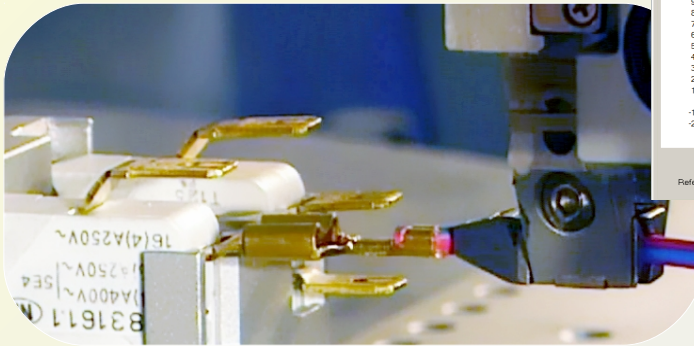

- Compact & monobloc equipment, easy to move & install

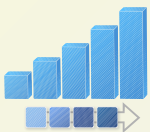

Be innovative, optimize and raise the quality level of your produced harness

- A unique concept, without equivalent in the market
- 100 % automatic insertion process, using integrated force monitoring

Stay up to date, using state-of-the-art technology

- High level technology equipment, fully programmable
- Intuitive software, with networking and remote support possibilities

